Creator, you made all people of every land.
It is our responsibility to give thanks and respect to those who first occupied this land we are upon.
We give thanks to the native tribes, the first people of this land.
We offer our respect to those ancestors who may be interred in this land.
We are also thankful for the gifts of the People of the land.
Creator let us be of Good Mind to reconcile the mistreatment of this land and to those who have been displaced.
With thankful and respectful hearts we pray in Your name,
Your son the Peacemaker and the Sacred Spirit.
Amen.

Weekly Ypsi UCC Community Discernment Gatherings meet on Mondays at 7:00 pm on the church Zoom. Our next meeting is on March 20 at 7:00 pm. Due to the Monthly Worship Team Meeting schedule, there will not be a Community Discernment Gathering held on Mar 13. We are currently working on our rough draft Mission and Vision statements. We will continue this work on March 20 and begin our Appreciative Inquiry process to support the identification of our Core Values and Guiding Principles. Our last Community Discernment Gathering will be held on Monday, April 3.

“Engaging Christian Contemplation Practices” Vitality Grant seminar continues to meet bi-weekly on Wednesdays at 7:00 pm through the UCC Southern New England Conference Center for Leadership Development. Remaining dates are March 15 and March 29. We are learning new ways to relax into God’s presence while trusting the Spirit to guide us in discerning God’s Still Speaking voice.

The Worship Team meeting will be Monday, March 13. The remaining 2023 Worship Team Meeting dates are Apr 10, May 8, Jun 12, Jul 10, Aug 14, Sept 11, Oct 9, Nov 13, and Dec 11.

Holy Grounds Ministry is expanding to include "Tea for the Soul" which has begun for night staff at Trinity Health Ann Arbor (St. Joe's). Chaplain Dan Kidder-McQuown will be serving hot tea and snacks on different units in addition to good coffee.

Below are the items we will be needed (through June) and identified by Dan:

- Loose leaf tea from local shops, i.e., black teas, green teas, and herbal (no caffeine) teas.
- Individual large tea filters, usually sold in 100 count packages.
- Local roasted coffee
- Snacks that go well with tea

Chris Hale and Ron Horvath are both recovering from major surgery. Patrick O’Brien is settling into his new residence at Regency in Canton. Chris, Ron and Patrick all need our prayers.

One Great Hour of Sharing special offering will be received next Sunday. Below is another story of how our OGHS contributions help alleviate hunger.

Hunger is defined as a condition in which a person does not have the physical or financial capability to meet basic nutritional needs—for a sustained period. What, then, does the opposite of hunger look like? For Maribel and her family in the Carazo region of Nicaragua, it looks like a holistic food security program called CIEETS. Through a CWS local partnership with Growing Hope Globally, the CIEETS program provides training in diversity farming that teaches families to grow many different crops, so that one bad harvest or failed planting season doesn’t have a devastating impact on their livelihoods. Additionally, a diversified diet leads to better overall nutrition.

“Thank God we are part of the CIEETS project,” Maribel says. “Thanks to the Pastor of the Nazarene Church, the CIEETS program came to my community and my family life.”

In addition to crop diversification, the CIEETS program also assists with water safety, irrigation, sanitation, and hygiene – all of which helps strengthen food security throughout the area. For communities like Maribel’s, this is especially important because there are low levels of coverage in basic services. For Maribel’s family, these aspects of the program have included learning to farm with irrigation, as well as farm with irrigation, and the replacement of a latrine that had reached the end of its useful life. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and hurricanes Eta and Iota in 2020, it has been exceptionally difficult for Maribel’s husband to find work. This means that the skills Maribel developed and the support of her family has received have been even more critical throughout this time. “We learned how to product with irrigation. Anything we harvest is welcome, this is the basis of our livelihood.” she says.

OGHS supports programs like CIEETS is helping Maribel’s family and 290 other families in her region create sustainable farming, safe water, and good hygiene practices. Programs like this address the root causes of food insecurity and bring real sustainable change.

Women’s History Month began as a local celebration in Santa Rosa, California in 1978. A decade later, in 1987, Congress designated the month of March as Women’s History Month. A few milestones, firsts and triumph:

March 31, 1776 - Abigail Adams tells her husband, John Adams, to “remember the ladies” while drafting the constitution.

July 19-20, 1848 - Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Lucretia Mott organize the Seneca Falls Convention, the first women’s rights convention.

January 23, 1849 - Elizabeth Blackwell becomes the first female graduate from Medical school and the first female doctor in the United States.

1850 - The first National Women’s Rights Convention takes place in Massachusetts.

December 10, 1869 - Wyoming becomes the first state to pass a women’s suffrage law.

On May 15, 1869 - The National Woman Suffrage Association is founded.

1903 - The National Women’s Trade Union League (WTUL) is established to advocate for adequate wages and working conditions for women.

October 16, 1916 - Margaret Sanger opens the first birth control clinic.

April 2, 1917 - Jeannette Rankin becomes the first Congresswoman.

August 18, 1920 - The 19th Amendment grants women the right to vote.

June 10, 1963 - The Equal Pay Act prohibits sex-based wage discrimination.

January 22, 1973 - In the landmark case of Roe v. Wade, the U. S. Supreme Court declares the Constitution must protect a woman’s right to abortion.

As of March 2020 - Congress along with the Democratic Presidential candidates are the most diverse they’ve ever been. Internationally, Saudi women now have the right to drive.

The timeline of women’s history will never end. However, it proves that resistance through perseverance can create positive change. Although women around the world continue to face hurdles for basic rights every day, we remain stronger together. Women can literally do anything. We stand together and create history.

OUR MINISTRIES

HOLY GROUNDS AND TEA FOR THE SOUL

During the Omicron (COVID) surge members of Ypsi UCC provided local coffee, tea, coffee cups, and single packaged snacks for the night shift at Trinity Health St. Joe Mercy Hospital where Rev. Dan Kidder-McQuown is the night chaplain. While the COVID crisis has partially resolved, the stress level of the night staff has not. Contributing factors include the long-term emerging effects of COVID, a lack of staff, a nation-wide nurse shortage, and staff burnout. The night shift greatly appreciates this ministry of hospitality and caring.

Please consider donating coffee that is roasted by local Michigan companies. Tea and single packaged candy or snacks are also welcome. Please contact Marty Kleino at Mgkleino@gmail.com or 734-262-1419 to have your donation delivered to St. Joes. If you would like more information about this ministry, please contact Dan Kidder-McQuown at mcq188@gmail.com or 517-240-8413.

The Beacon Center is the newest community social justice of the Ypsilanti First Congregational UCC. As a light to all persons, the Beacon Center's ministry will support the spiritual formation, creative expression, overall thriving and advocacy of at-risk students of all ages, including those affiliated with three primary local institutions of higher learning: Eastern Michigan University, Washtenaw Community College and University of Michigan. In the Spirit of the UCC moto, "That They All Shall Be One", Beacon Center serves as a uniting and unifying umbrella across our congregation serving persons sources through our three other community social justice ministry networks. Those ministries (each detailed below) include WICIR (Washtenaw Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Rights) serving the immigrant communities, MI-ONA (Michigan Open and Affirming Coalition) serving LGBTQ+ persons, and WeROC (Washtenaw Regional Organizing Coalition) which brings together faith, labor and community organizations to address local issues.

The Beacon Center is committed to advocate for self-determination and education for all people, especially students living in poverty, persons of color experiencing racism, and other de-humanizing circumstances and conditions. Beacon Center's student demographics include persons of color, immigrants, minorities, LGBTQ+ folk, women, those with special needs, the economically disadvantaged, those facing housing insecurity, the financially challenged, and the working poor. For additional information on the Beacon Center, please contact Rev. Liz Larrivee at lizlarrivee@gmail.com

IMMIGRATION MINISTRY – WASHTENAW INTERFAITH COALITION FOR IMMIGRANT RIGHTS (WICIR)

Since 2008, WICIR has been working with, and in support of, immigrants in Washtenaw County facing challenges of many kinds. At our inception the primary need that brought us together was to support people facing enforcement action by ICE (Immigration and Customs Enforcement); most often detention, deportation, and removal. To date, WICIR has responded to 650 calls. Always in partnership with folks most affected, many actions and services have evolved as identified by our immigrant siblings, while always keeping focused on our original mission:

To provide culturally sensitive and supportive urgent response to those in Washtenaw County in immigration-related crises; impact local governmental policies to empower and protect immigrant community members; and work toward humane national immigration reform.

Our outreach has been significantly impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Many in immigrant communities have experienced significant challenges as they struggle to pay rent, provide food for their families and other basic survival needs. To respond, WICIR, in partnership with Mexiquenses in Michigan (from St. Francis of Assisi Parish), has raised and distributed $200,000 relief funds to immigrants and their families. We have a waiting list of those still in need and will continue this effort as funds are available.

For information about what's happening with immigrant rights and Washtenaw Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Rights, or if you are interested in learning ways to help, please contact Melanie Harner at melharner@gmail.com or through the WICIR website: <https://wicir.org/>. You can also find a link on the church website.

WASHTENAW REGIONAL ORGANIZING COALITION

First Congregational is a founding institution of the local “organization of organizations” WeROC (Washtenaw Regional Organizing Coalition). In many ways, WeROC is a larger illustration of the values and mission we try to live out at First Congregational. WeROC members are, at our core, focused on intentionally re-weaving the frayed fabric of community at a time when forces are at work every day to keep us fragmented, suspicious of each other, feeling isolated. Especially in this time when so many are being hit by the health and economic crises, WeROC’s focus on raising voices of those most affected is more important than ever (See COVID-19 Resources at www.werocmi.org) WeROC’s Mission Statement is:

WeROC brings together faith, labor, community organizations, and individuals to build the healthy collective power needed to break down the systems that sustain injustice, racism, and economic inequality.

WeROC is affiliated with the Detroit Metro organization MOSES and the Gamliel National Network. Contact Tad Wysor at tadwysor@gmail.com or 734-883-3225.

This past election year showed us good things can happen when we’re working together in the same direction. WeROC is moving rapidly forward to keep momentum going and find ways to continue to be more effective together in making our communities healthier and more vibrant places; improving the lives of everyone in big ways-- especially those who are most vulnerable and whose voice have seldom been heard.
